

Revolutionary War
Soldier George Bryan

D.A.R. Marker Dedication

20th May 2001
Old Harmony Cemetery

Chatham, Illinois

Cheri,
Susan
and Betsy

Betsy
making
last minute
edits
to her
talk

preparing for the reception

Karl,
Susan
and Betsy

Betsy's
neddlepoint
of her
lineage

Betsy's
lovely
silver tea
service

“The Chief”
(Karl)

Karl and Susan

Corey, Susan,
Cheri, and Karl decorating the tables for the reception

“Young” Betsy

Pre-event Activities

Last minute checking

Sally, Betsy
and "Young" Betsy, Sally's daughter

Sally and Betsy pose with a soldier

Meeting DAR dignitaries
and the lady from Bryan Station in Kentucky

Soldiers, over 200 years between their service, ready to march together

Karl Opens
the ceremonies

DAR and SAR and Descendants of George Bryan Open the processional

The Ceremony Begins

The Old and the New Color Guard

There is a prayer and a pledge

Various SAR and DAR dignitaries speak

Betsy gives the keynote speech

The descendants of George Bryan and the DAR representative unveil the headstone and dedication marker.

5.20.2009

Post
dedication
photo ops

Betsy with SAR soldiers
with George Bryan's
headstone.

Betsy with
SAR colorguard
and DAR
dignitaries

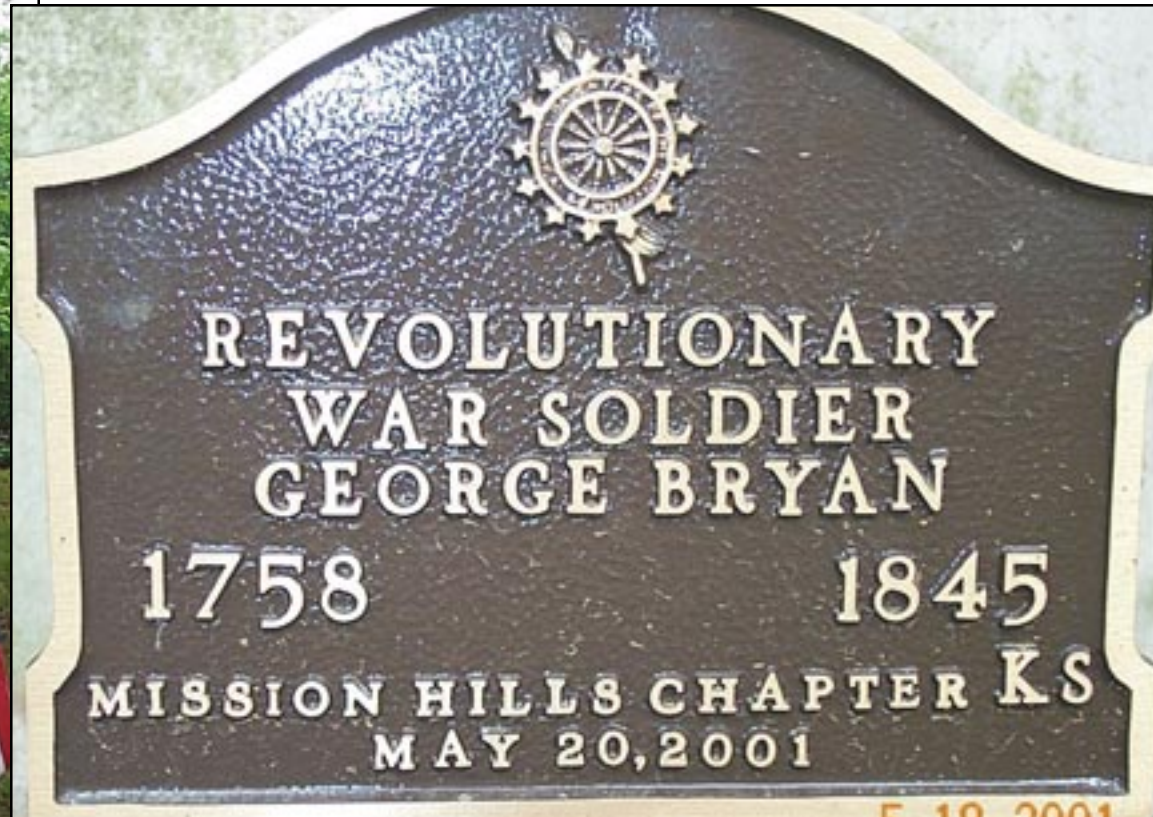

Betsy and Cheri, Betsy and Karls daughters, Susan and Sally, granddaughter Betsy and another Bryan descendant.

Sally,
“Young” Betsy,
Betsy and Susan

Betsy and Karl Their work
here is done!

Good Job!!

Honor, Courage and Peace,
As Betsy would say,
“George, you have been found!”